THIS MATTER having been brought before the Court upon the cross-motion of Eric R. Perkins, Esq. in his capacity as Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) in the above-captioned case of Supportive Health LLC (the “Debtor”), by and through his counsel Becker LLC, to bar future pro se filings from Carline Bolivar (“Ms. Bolivar”), the Debtor’s managing member and principal (the “Cross-Motion,” ECF No. 106); and Ms. Bolivar having filed an objection to the Trustee’s Cross-Motion (ECF No. 109); and the Court having considered the submissions of the parties; and having heard oral argument; and due notice having been given; and for good cause shown; and for the reasons set forth on the record on January 11, 2022; and the Court having considered the objection of Ms. Bolivar to the proposed form of Order submitted by the Trustee, the Trustee's response and Ms. Bolivar's reply thereto; it is

ORDERED that the Trustee’s Cross-Motion to bar future pro se filings of Ms. Bolivar is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART as set forth herein; and it is further

ORDERED that Ms. Bolivar is prohibited and barred from filing any future motions to reconsider the Court’s Orders: (1) Denying Ms. Bolivar’s Motion to Dismiss the present bankruptcy case (ECF No. 71) and denying her Motion for Reconsideration of the Denial of Dismissal Order (collectively, the “Denial of Dismissal Orders”); (2) Granting the Trustee’s Motion to Deem Tenants’ Rents

Property of the Bankruptcy Estate and to Compel the Turnover of All Rents Held by Tenants and Perrault Jean Paul to the Chapter 7 Trustee (ECF No. 72) and denying her Motion for Reconsideration of the Turnover Order (collectively, the "Turnover Orders") ; and (3) all subsidiary issues decided in connection with the issuance of such Orders, including (without limitation) whether the Debtor's bankruptcy filing was properly authorized, without the prior approval of this Court in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Order; and it is further

ORDERED that any future motions to reconsider filed by Ms. Bolivar relating to the Dismissal Orders and/or the Turnover Orders, and all subsidiary issues decided in connection with the issuance of such Orders, must be preceded by a letter or other supporting document certifying or affirming under penalty of perjury that the basis for the motion to reconsider involves new and additional grounds for relief that were not previously raised by or known to the parties or considered by the Court; and it is further

ORDERED that all parties-in-interest shall have seven (7) days from the date Ms. Bolivar's certification or affirmation is filed with the Court to object to same; and it is further

ORDERED that in the event an objection is filed, the Court will decide on the papers if Ms. Bolivar's Motion to Reconsider is in fact based on new and additional grounds for relief that were not previously raised by the parties or considered by the Court or the Court may conduct a hearing to decide whether such approval should be granted; and it is further

ORDERED that if the Court decides that sufficient new grounds exist for Ms. Bolivar to file a Motion to Reconsider, the Court will advise the interested parties that her request has been approved and that the Motion may be filed and will be scheduled for hearing in the ordinary course; and it is further

ORDERED that if the Court decides that no such sufficient new grounds exist for Ms. Bolivar to file a Motion to Reconsider, the Court will advise the interested parties that the request has not been approved. In such event, the Motion may not be filed and it will not be scheduled for hearing; and it is further

ORDERED that in the event Ms. Bolivar files a Motion to Reconsider without the above-referenced certification, the Court will not consider or schedule a return date for such Motion; and it is further

ORDERED that if Ms. Bolivar complies with the preceding conditions of this Order and no party-in-interest files an objection to her certification within seven (7) days of the certification being filed on the Court's docket, the Court shall schedule a return date for said Motion in the ordinary course; and it is further
